TOPIC BRAINSTORM

I wanted to create something that celebrated diversity without judgement based on physical appearance. The idea was to create an interface that allowed people to understand that they live in
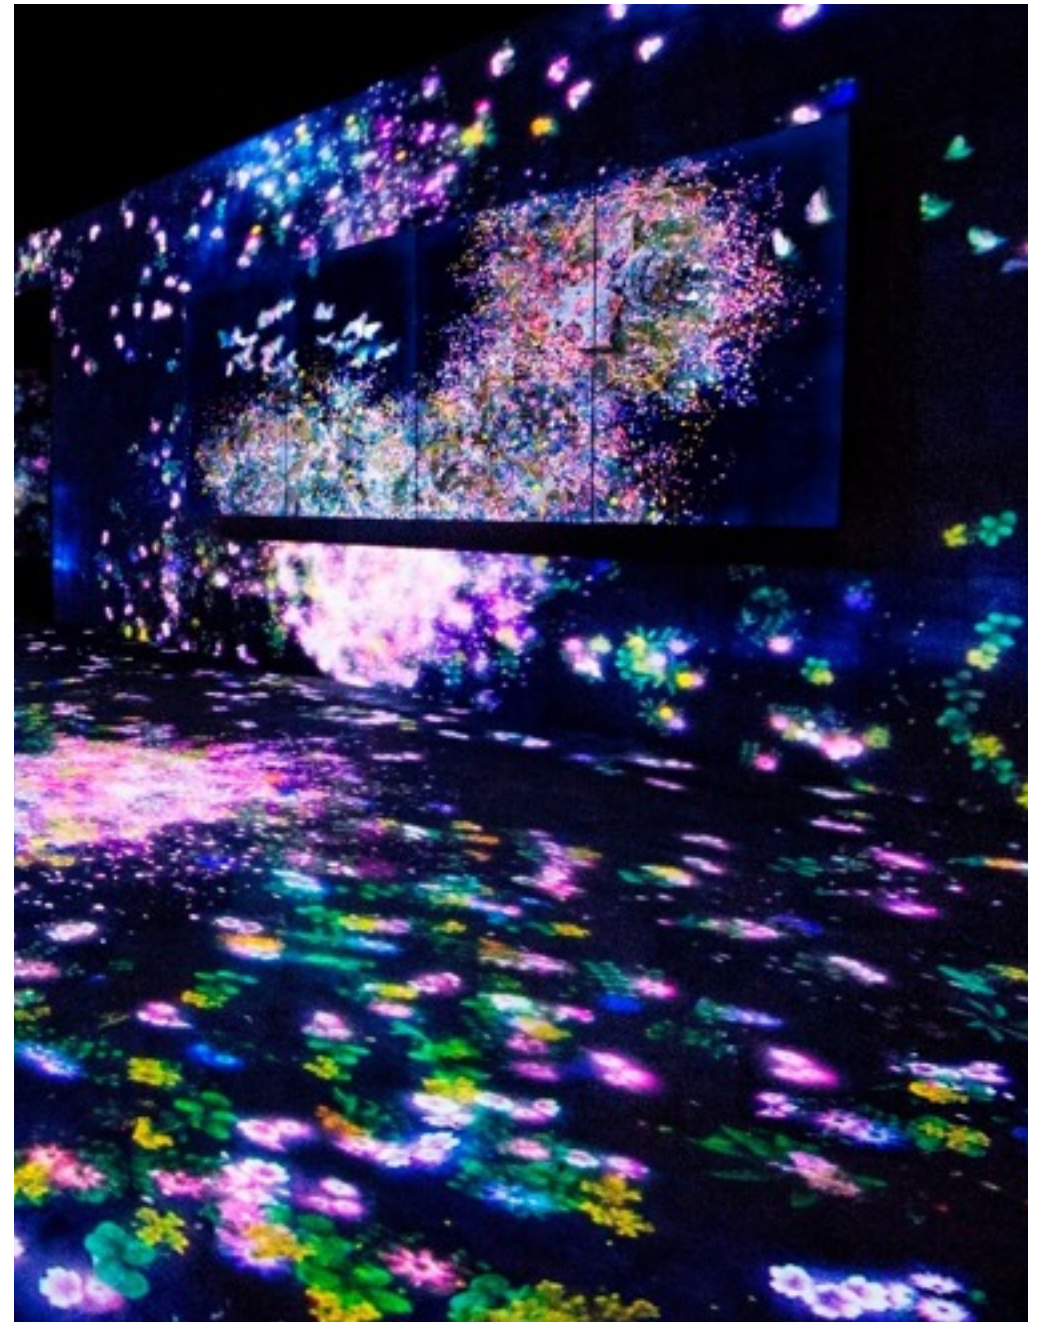

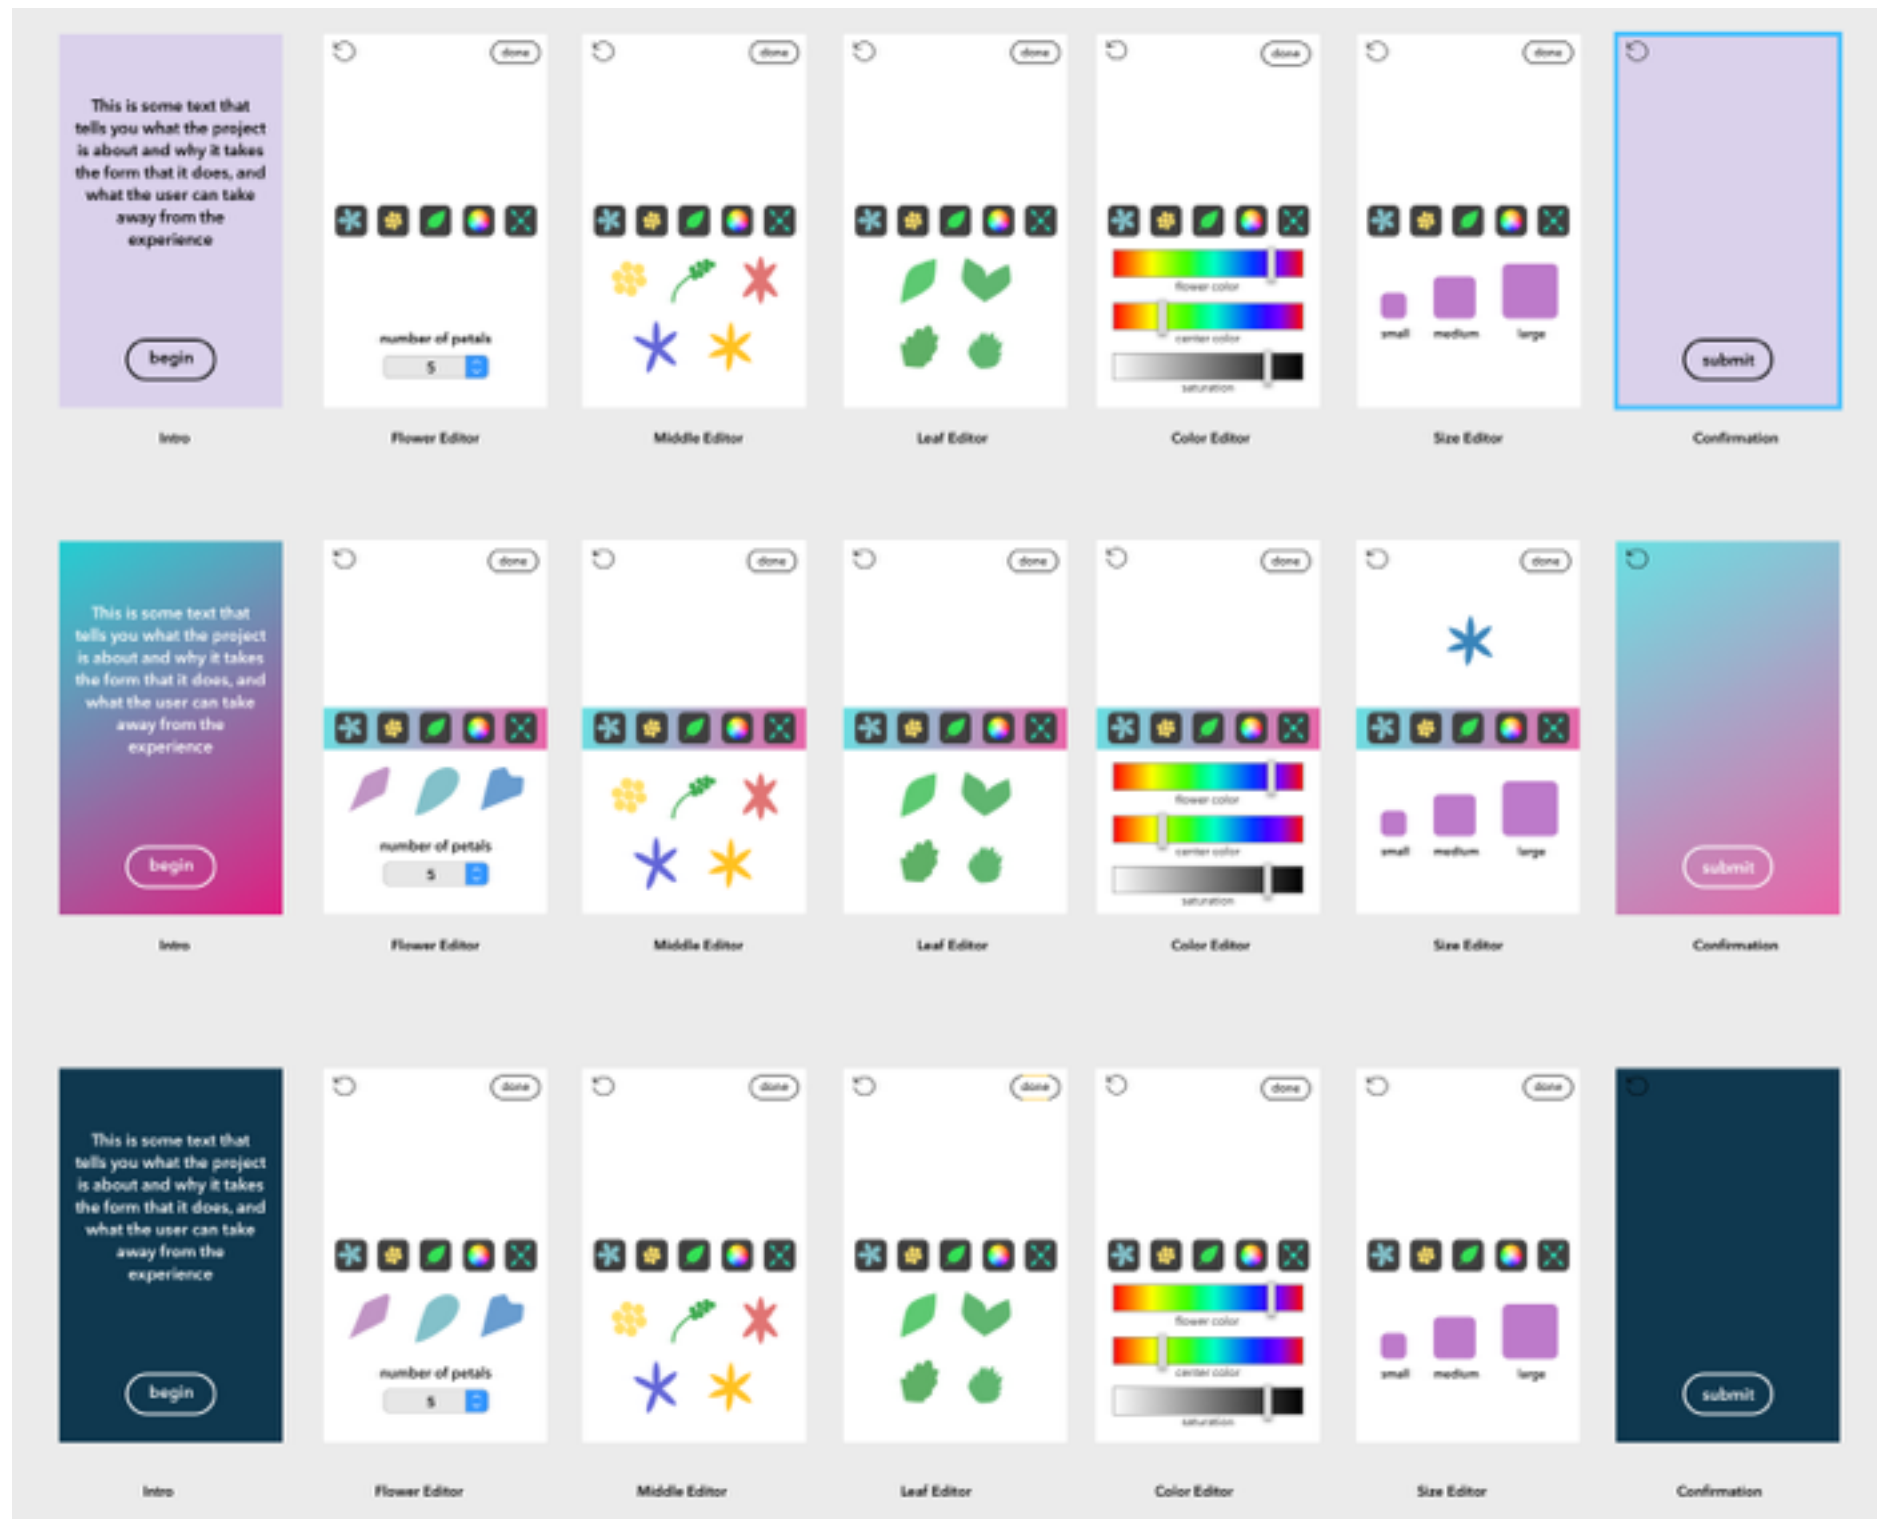

COMPARATIVE RESEARCH

Artist Jennifer Steinkamp does lots of work with visual and digital botanic arrangements. She uses new media to create these displays. TeamLab also creates digital floral displays, using sensors to allow for interactivity.
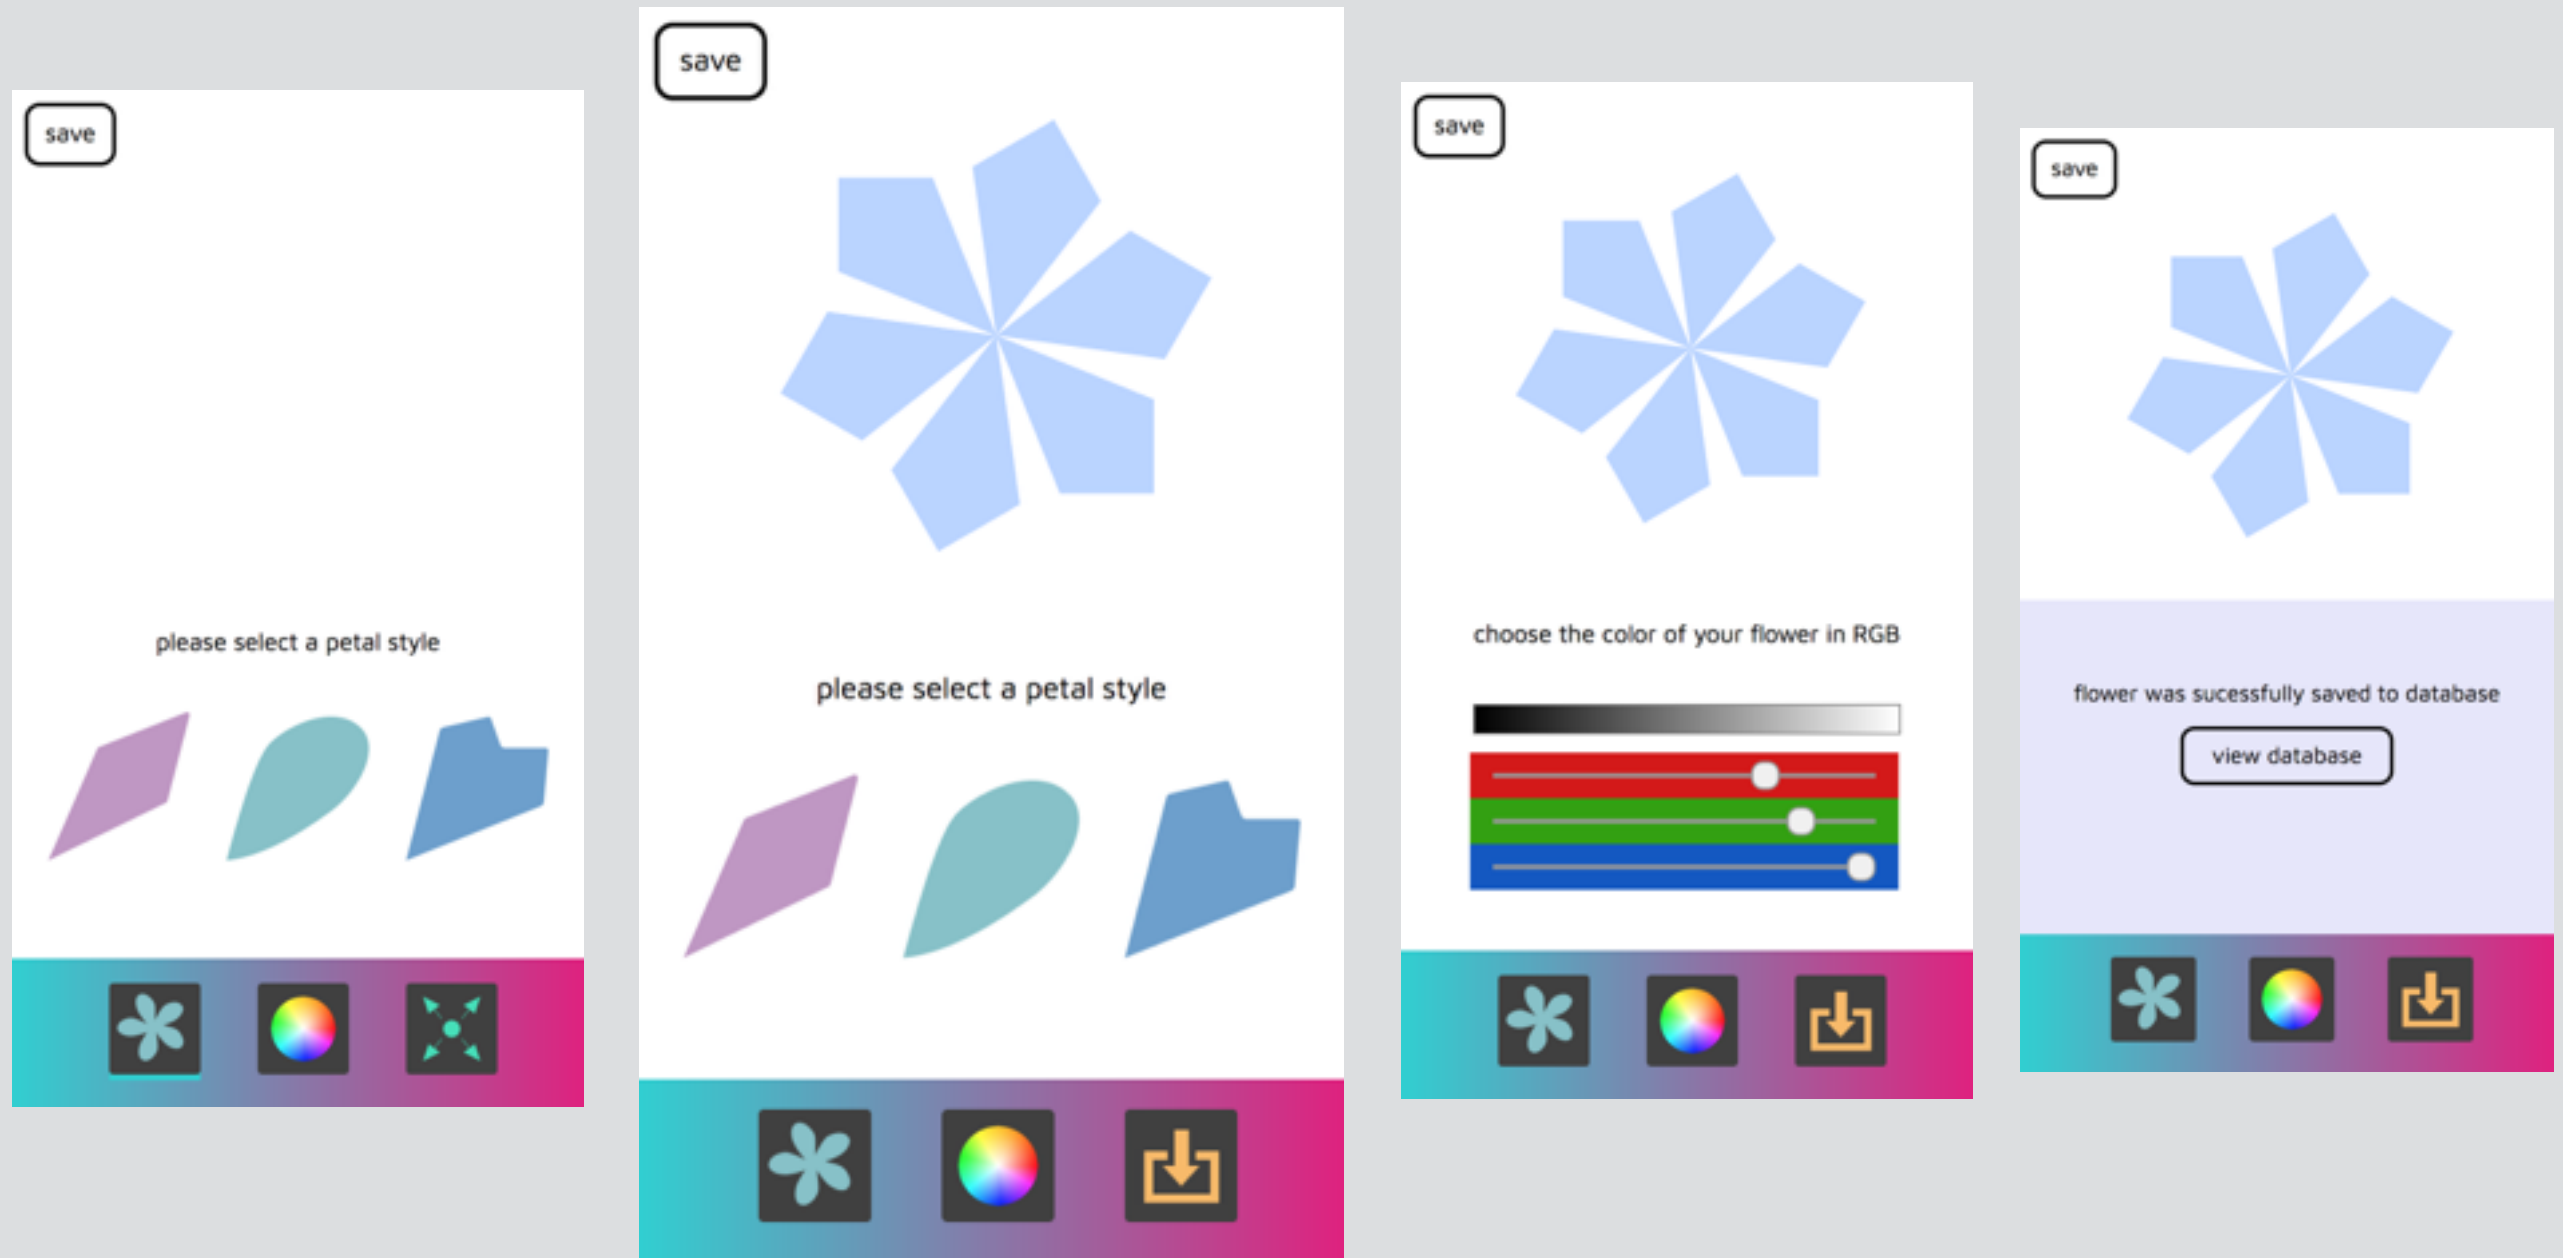

PROJECT MOCKUPS

USER TESTING

Testing showed that the buttons were sized too small and overall the icons for the page weren't a useable size. I also got feedback regarding how the color wasn't quite as generative as the user would like.
